Reports

- Move-A-Thon (Nov. 29 – Dec. 3) - Sara
 - Each student will have a 99pledges page; pending opt-out email forms from families
 - Will have final day of move-a-thon a mini field day event
 - Will need volunteers at each station
 - One grade participating at a time
 - Will do a prize table the week following; we have a few shelves with prizes left from last year

- Auction (Feb. 5) - Angela
 - Had first meeting a few weeks ago; everyone that attended is doing the asking now for donations
 - Angela started asking for parties as auction items; hosting a party outside of school
 - Received estimates for dinner at OPL for up to 100 and up to 150 people
 - They should have tents by December, if so will be included without rental fee; does not include any additional lighting
 - Angela will ask for mic and sounds system, and discuss drink ticket options
 - We were going to charge $55/ticket in 2020, pricing was cheaper from OPL, but may have now increased due to covid

- Holiday Bazaar (Dec. 4) - Kelly
 - Vendors have signed up
 - Need sink for food safety purposes, so need to serve food indoors, but will eat outside
 - Flyers in HMB review week before Thanksgiving, flyers will be put up around that time
 - Hoping to have sign-up genius by Monday

- Book Fair (Mar. 7 – 11) – Virma
 - Preview day March 4th

- Ocean’s Guardian: Banner and plan for this year – Priscilla/Amy
 - Last year, Amy, Kaia and Priscilla met regularly; pivoted from waste reduction, to this year asking students to determine focus

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ In the beginning of this year, k-3 had campus cleanup, and 4-5 had beach cleanup; this sparked ideas with students, and had a meeting with 4th graders looking to reduce plastic/waste in general at school ○ Bamboo cutlery/metal sporks to be available if students forget their own is an idea; has been naturally evolving with student input ○ Next year, will focus on applying for a second year; in support, perhaps we don't use plastic cutlery at the Holiday Bazaar
